BZZZZZZAK!

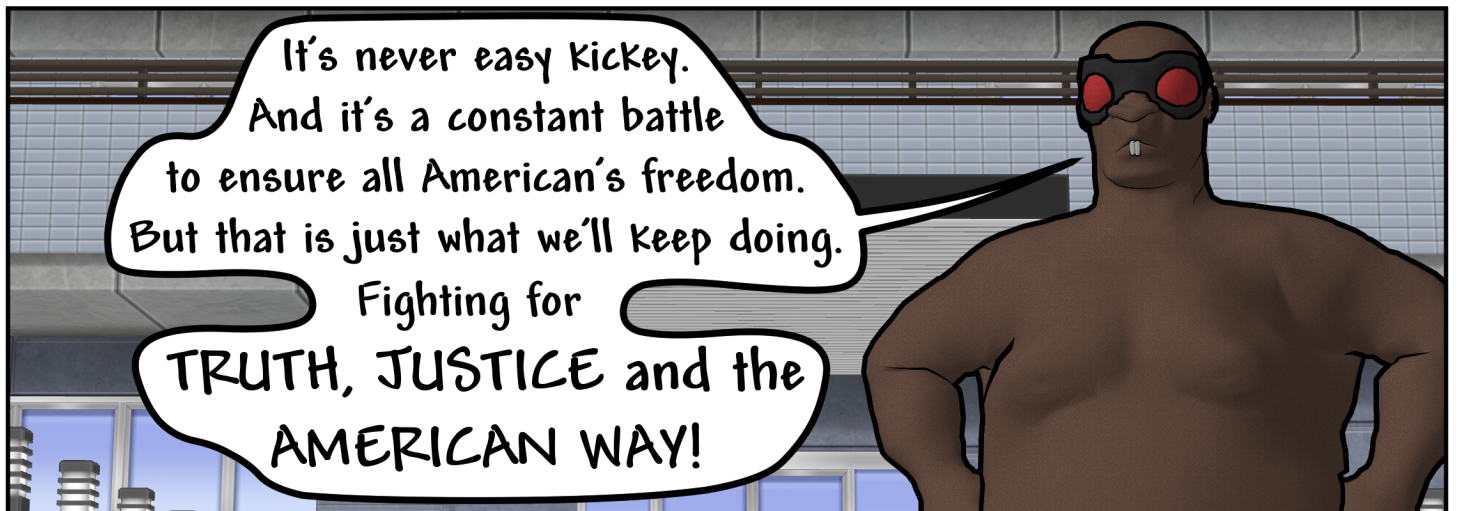

Time for these villains to
SEE THE LIGHT OF TRUTH!

SLAP!

If that's the best they've got, keeping America safe should be easy Beav!

It's never easy Kickey. And it's a constant battle to ensure all American's freedom. But that is just what we'll keep doing.

Fighting for TRUTH, JUSTICE and the AMERICAN WAY!

In fact, it's time to take the fight to Drumpf himself.

You mean we're goin' on a road trip?

That's right. We are headed to their seat of power. Maybe we can stop this campaign of hate and negativity.

Away now to DRUMPF MONOLITH in New York!

The once fair city is now controlled by...

DRUMPF MONOLITH:

Excessive, obnoxious, and unavoidable. The towering structure serves as Nerve Center, Housing, and the very instrument of his ubiquitous control over the populace.

To the horror of all who beheld the construction, it is a night club turned inside out. Constantly broadcasting DJ Drumpf's mind control message seamlessly integrated with music and media.

Other than the few deaf, hard of hearing, and those who refused to listen, the mind control of America was near complete...

Thankfully, Beaverton's goggles and Kickey's scarf protect them from all mind control!

What is everyone doing on their phones?

They're TWIDS, Totally World Ignorant Devotees. They spend all day posting on TwidDER and think they're involved in the world, in little bite sized chunks.

FOOLISHNESS I say!

Meanwhile nearby...

Catchphrase: "SIT DOWN!"

As Beaverton draws close to the Monolith the villain attacks!

SIT DOWN!

You can't push ME around Crosstie!

Well you aren't getting in the Monolith. THE BRIDGE IS CLOSED!

I put up the traffic cones myself.

Yeah yeah I get it. Jokes on you. Your lackeys closed the wrong bridge!

Beav, I'm pretty sure I could outrun this guy on my slowest day!

Let's just head inside.

Right you are. Let's GO KICKEY!

Wait a minute Beaverton. Don't these drummers have shows on the 'Media Broadcasting Channel?'

YES, we work for MBC, so what?

They say the media can't be trusted.

Who are 'they' kickey? You have to use your intellegence to filter the media message.

Media is not the enemy, Lies Are!

Real journalists use facts...

BUT, most media is 'placed' by some entity with an agenda. You have to remember most of the time somebody wants you to watch that story to make you think about their issue.

ALSO, most facts are self-evident. 'Polls' are someone's opinion on real responses to questions. YOU have to decide what is real news for yourself. Not be told what to believe.

With that out of the way.
